MCACA GRANT NEWS! The CCCAC was awarded a $20,000 grant from the Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs for Operational Support. The grant was awarded through the MCACA peer review process and was one of 561 applications to compete for MCACA fiscal year 2019 funding. The MCACA peer review process allows for each grant application to be competitively considered by a panel of in-state and out-of-state arts and culture professionals. This ensures the taxpayers, who support this project through legislative appropriations, and all other visitors or residents in Michigan will have access to the highest quality arts and cultural experiences. The CCCAC also received $1500 for Professional and Organizational Development.

The CCCAC was awarded $30,200 for Regional Regranting (minigrants) awards and $10,000 for Administration of the Regional Regranting program.

Kerredge Gallery: LIFE AND COLOR paintings by Miguel Levy

The Artist says about LIFE AND COLOR, "Life is not a single color, not even the many shades of one. Even as we are pushed towards atomization, it is the infinite connections of our social existence that give life its true meaning. And though we are often asked to stand in awe of individual power and celebrity, it is community and mutual care that reach beyond."

Miguel Levy was born in Lima, Peru. When he was 15 his mother arranged for an Argentinian artist living in Lima to paint with him. He mostly let the young artist paint at his leisure and offered comments about his work. Though he doesn't remember the artist's name Miguel does have this memory, "He drove me to the Pacific Ocean shore in Lima one afternoon and I painted the sunset. I wish I still had that painting. He taught me to appreciate color. Life taught me to appreciate a different kind of color." One painting in this exhibition was saved by his mother from that magical time. Miguel Levy lives in Houghton and is a Professor in the Physics Department at Michigan Tech University. Join us for a reception on Thursday, October 11 from 6-8pm.
