Kerredge Gallery Exhibition

A Passport and a Past Life, photographs by Tom Oliver

"A Passport and a Past Life" includes images that connect Tom Oliver's history as a wildlife biologist and growing up in the UP to what he has experienced in his travels abroad, especially as it relates to conservation. The exhibition includes an exotic array of rich color photographs depicting places both dense with humanity and quiet in nature. The photos shown in the Kerredge Gallery were taken in South Korea, Hong Kong, Indonesia, Paris, Colorado, and Au Train, Michigan and will be on display through July 31.

Tom Oliver states, "The fundamental goal of my photography is for the viewer to come away with a greater respect toward, appreciation for, and knowledge of 1) the world in which we exist, 2) the starkness and beauty integral to survival, and 3) to inspire people to learn about the diverse world surrounding us." Please join us for the reception and gallery talk on Friday, July 12 from 6-8pm.

Artists Market Featured Artist
Bridget Riversmith

The gallery has eight new paintings by Hancock artist Bridget Riversmith. Bridget paints with gouache on paper and works in a way which allows an unfolding of image and story with fantastical creatures, insects, and animals where they gather in nature and intersect with the man-made world. Some of them embody human characteristics such as "Terraforma", a tiny ant driving a tractor in an abstract landscape that appears to be in disarray and "The Dish" which features a standing bear, his paw held up to his mouth gasping in disbelief at a glowing satellite dish. This display will be up through July.
