

Copper Country Community Arts Council and the City of Houghton present the 9th annual

Houghton Spring Art and Music Festival
Saturday June 12, 2010
Noon-7pm

We've survived the winter! Come out for a celebration of spring with art, music, art activities, food, artist demonstrations, and more in downtown Houghton! This event is sponsored by the City of Houghton and the Copper Country Community Arts Council.

ARTIST BOOTH APPLICATION

ELIGIBILITY: All artists and crafts persons in any media who make their own ORIGINAL work. This is a juried art fair. Please describe the work you will sell below. Food vending in your booth is not allowed.

DATE & HOURS: Saturday, June 12 from Noon-7pm.

LOCATION: The City of Houghton is working with us to secure our location. We hope to hold the festival on Sheldon Avenue again this year and this will be dependent upon MDOT regulations. Please be sure to check the box below on the best way we can contact you.

SET UP: Saturday morning-time to be determined.

ENTRY DETAILS: THE BOOTH FEE IS $65. If this is your first year making application to the HAMF you must send or e-mail 3-5 photos of your work. You may mail photos with your application or e-mail them to ccarts@chartermi.net, subject: HAMF Photos. Artists represented by the CCCAC are not required to send photos.

DISPLAY: Booth spaces are approximately 10' X 10'. Artists must bring their own display materials. This is an outdoor fair, be prepared for weather. Artists' booths must be attended at all times. All work must be clearly marked with the price. Exhibitors are responsible for their own Michigan sales tax.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: FRIDAY, MAY 28

DEMONSTRATING ARTISTS: Deduct $10 from the fee if you demonstrate your art during the fair at your booth.

QUESTIONS: Please call Cynthia Coté at (906) 482-2333 or e-mail ccarts@chartermi.net if you have any questions or if you are a community/ non-profit organization.

Mail completed entry form, check or money order payable to CCCAC for $65 ($55 for demonstrating artists) to:
