

NOTIFICATION will be sent the week of October 21. Please do not call regarding the status of your application. No refunds after November 15.

LOCATION Calumet Public School Gymnasium on Calumet Avenue (US 41) in Calumet.

DATE & HOURS Saturday, December 7, 2019 from 10 am to 4pm. The show opens at 10am for members of the Copper Country Community Arts Council and 11am for the general public. We advertise that we will be there until 4pm. Please do not start packing up early.

DISPLAY Booth spaces are 10' deep by 10' across. A larger space is available for artists using wheelchairs. Artists must bring their own display materials. The school will not have tables available. If you require electricity please note on entry form. You will be responsible for extension cords and duct tape to safely secure electrical cords. Artists' booths must be attended at all times. The CCCAC will provide relief people for artists coming alone. All work must be clearly marked with the price. Exhibitors are responsible for their own Michigan sales tax.

SET UP Friday evening, 8-10pm, any changes will be listed in your acceptance letter. The building will open at 8am on Saturday. All exhibitors must be set up by 9:45am the day of the sale. Complimentary coffee and bakery will be available to exhibitors during set up on Saturday morning.

BEST BOOTH AWARDS Beautiful or interesting booth displays draw more shoppers. If that's not incentive enough, how about free entry in to next year's sale? We will have a team of judges selecting awardees.

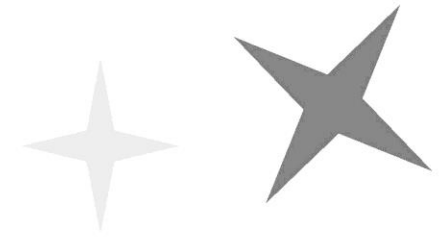

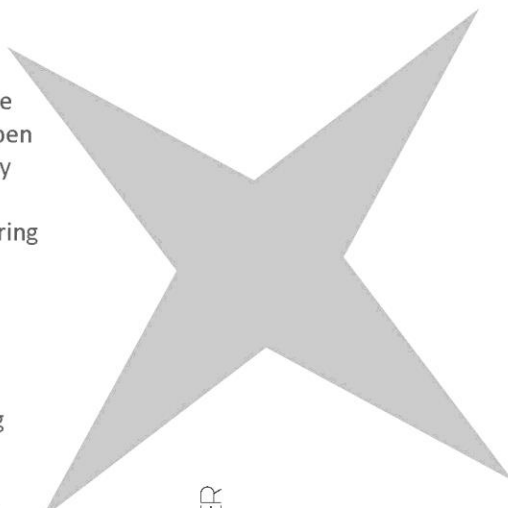

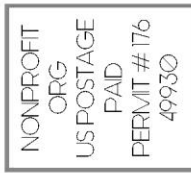

QUESTIONS should be directed to Cynthia Coté at 906.482.2333 during office hours, T-F 10AM-6PM

MAIL completed entry form, check or money order payable to CCCAC for the $75 fee and a self addressed stamped envelope with correct postage to:

43rd annual

POOR ARTISTS SALE

The Poor Artists Sale is an event by the Copper Country Community Arts Center in Hancock. It is an annual juried art fair featuring fine art and craft from local and regional artists. One of the longest running holiday art shows in the Copper Country, it draws established artists and large crowds of holiday shoppers. The Poor Artists Sale is held the first Saturday in December at the CLK Gym in Calumet. The CCCAC welcomes new applicants.

ENTRY DETAILS

ELIGIBILITY This is a juried art fair. All artists and craftspersons in any media who make their own ORIGINAL work may apply. Prints must be of the exhibiting artist's work only. Clothing, fiber, and needlework must be designed by the artist. It is unacceptable to use copies of other artists' work or cast ceramics, commercial greeting cards, commercial settings for jewelry, or commercial patterns. Artists exhibiting works that do not meet these guidelines will be disqualified from future Poor Artists Sales. The committee reserves the right to make final decisions on entries.

BOOTH FEE $75. If you are not accepted, your fee will be returned to you. No refunds will be given for cancellations after November 15.

DEADLINE TO APPLY WEDS. OCTOBER 16TH.

Please select the category you will be exhibiting in. The show will be juried by a committee. Originality and quality of the work as well as balance of mediums represented will be of primary consideration. Incomplete entries will not be considered. No transferred entries.

ALL ARTISTS MUST SUBMIT NO MORE THAN 3-6 DIGITAL PHOTOS REPRESENTATIVE OF THEIR WORK.

Do not submit actual artwork. Each image must be labeled with "Your Name-Title-Medium" You may also mail 3-6 actual photographs of your work with your application & booth fee, but they will not be returned. Only high quality, digital photos can be used to promote the event. If you need to take photographs of your work, the CCCAC has a small space set up for this purpose. Call or email us for details.
