Updates at the Arts Center

While we were closed to the public, the staff at the CCCAC was busy making improvements. The gallery pedestals, pillars, and trim all received a fresh coat of paint from Cynthia and volunteer Cheryl Lenart; the letterpress studio was rearranged for better work flow & Daniel Schneider made a large cabinet to hold all our wood type; Bonnie had time to focus on revamping our website and making some new letterpress printed work for sale. We'll be getting new carpeting in February, and will have to close while it gets installed: February 9-13, 2019.

Kerredge Gallery January Exhibition: Animal Life, Art from the Kalevala

The Kalevala is a 19th century work of poetry compiled by Elias Lönnrot from Finnish and Karelian oral folklore and mythology. It is regarded as the national epic poem of Finland and is one of the most significant works of Finnish literature.

It's Not Just Black & White: Photography Portraits by Glenn Ierley Kerredge Gallery: February 6-March 2, 2019

Twenty stunning photographs in black and white by local photographer, Glenn Ierley will be on display through March 2. His acute attention to detail and the sensitive nature of his photographic sittings are timeless. Glenn's work meets somewhere between photojournalism, high art, and the starkness of a 1970 high school graduation picture. He shared this quote by Ted Grant that he found inspirational, "When you photograph people in color, you photograph their clothes. But when you photograph people in black and white, you photograph their souls." He will also give a presentation on "A Color Restoration of a 1915 Photograph of Village Women from Russia" on Friday, February 15th from 6-7:30pm. This is an amazing story about what it takes to accurately restore color to an image taken before color film existed. Please join us for this presentation and his opening reception on Friday, February 8th from 6-8pm.
